Step into the storybook charm of this 1930 Sears Roebuck home, offering three levels plus a basement and brimming with character. Many of the home's original historical features remain beautifully intact, from detailed millwork to built-ins and original French doors leading from the living room to a welcoming porch. A cozy fireplace and beamed ceilings set the tone, while a light-filled sunroom overlooking the backyard invites year-round enjoyment. The kitchen blends timeless style with modern convenience, featuring marble tile countertops, commercial-grade appliances, plenty of custom cabinets and a walk-in pantry. The formal dining room boasts original built ins and is perfect for gatherings, and the great room boasts a striking pine board-and-batten ceiling. Upstairs, the primary suite offers a remodeled 3/4 bath and dual walk-in closets, while all bedrooms include ceiling fans, walk-in closets, and built-ins. A finished attic serves as a versatile fourth bedroom, and the basement includes laundry, a workshop, and ample storage. Outside, you'll find a fenced yard adorned with blossoming flowers, a 1.5-car garage with a 2-car concrete driveway, and a lean-to for lawn supplies. Major updates--such as all-new plumbing, updated electrical, foam insulation injected into the walls, and a tankless water heater--add comfort and efficiency without sacrificing the home's irreplaceable charm.
